

In this era, don't confuse experience and education with intelligence; you can have all the experience or the academic ability, but still, this will not predict your career success

Your opportunity to lead and succeed in the Post COVID era, will depend a great deal on your ability to be Emotionally Intelligent (EQ)

1/ Brain Discovery Profiler (BDP)

The best-in-class EQ assessment, and responses are analyzed using a special algorithm utilizing all 20 normative scales. BDP profiles bring a decade of research into an easy-to-use single page profile with profound value for learning, coaching, performance management, selection, and growth

2/ SEI Profiler Leadership Report

The tool was co-developed by Six Seconds International and Six Seconds Italia. It has been tested in over 100 countries. With SEI report, what does it look like to implement emotional intelligence as a leader? Where are you now? What's next for you to leverage your EQ to improve people-leadership?

- Learn the concept of EQ in a simple and clear framework of Six Seconds
- Learn, as a leader how to interpret and manage your emotions

- Learn while leading - how to be more balanced, focused, energetic and purposeful
- Know your highest/lowest EQ talents and how to put your EQ talents in action

- Build awareness of human dynamics for effective teamwork and leadership
- Get insights for your own executive coaching camps

Healthy Emotions +
Clear Thinking +
Appropriate Action =
